

1. Circle T (True) or F (False).

- |  |       |
|--|-------|
| a) Korean New Year is always in January.             | T / F |
| b) Korean New Year is an important holiday in China. | T / F |
| c) The holiday happens three times a year.           | T / F |
| d) Children get money from older relatives.          | T / F |
| e) Eun's grandmother lives in Seoul.                 | T / F |

2. Tick the things that are NOT part of the Korean New Year celebrations.

- |                                  |                          |                                     |                          |
|----------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| a) People visit older relatives. | <input type="checkbox"/> | d) People wear traditional clothes. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| b) People eat traditional food.  | <input type="checkbox"/> | e) Parents bow to children.         | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| c) Children play Korean music.   | <input type="checkbox"/> | f) Schools open.                    | <input type="checkbox"/> |