

1. Read the text and circle T (True) or F (False).

a) Monkeys can use their tails to climb trees.            T            F

b) Monkeys can talk to each other and to humans.    T            F

c) Crows build their nests high up in trees.            T            F

d) Crows can't eat small animals.                        T            F

e) Elephants can smell things.                            T            F

f) Elephants can't run fast.                                T            F