

EVERYONE CAN DO SOMETHING WELL

Hi, my name is Anna, and I want to talk about some of my friends.

This is Jason. He's an excellent American football player. He can kick the ball very hard. He could play American football when he was only five years old. Amazing, right?

Andrew can't do any sports, but he's so good at music. He can play the violin beautifully. But the violin isn't his first instrument. When he was just four, he could play the drums.

Lana loves cooking. She can make delicious foods for groups of people. When she was six years old, she could prepare meals for big groups, and she did it quickly.

Everybody likes to read Jane's stories because she writes fantastic stories. She writes very slowly, but in the end, her works are great. When she was only three years old, she could write one-page stories!
