

1. Write T (true) or F (false) next to the sentences. Correct the false sentences.

- A) There are no insects in Antarctica.
- B) Butterflies make honey.
- C) Bees eat pollen.
- D) A hive is a house for bees.
- E) Bees have got two wings.
- F) A female bee is called a queen.
- G) A worker bee lives around four years.

2. Match the two halves of the sentences.

- | | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| A) A queen bee | C) Bees have got very | E) There are a lot of |
| B) A bee's antennae | D) Nectar and pollen | F) A bee's stinger |
| 1) strong little bodies. | 3) are what bees eat. | 5) is very sharp. |
| 2) lays many eggs. | 4) are on its head. | 6) worker bees in a hive. |