

1. Read the text and write true (T) or false (F).

- a) More people are in New Orleans now because it's carnival time.
- b) This carnival is more popular than Rio Carnival.
- c) In parades people are wearing different costumes and masks.
- d) People in parades are throwing different objects to the spectators.
- e) The band in the carnival plays only jazz music.
- f) People with costumes in purple, green or gold symbolise justice, faith and power.
- g) Restaurants are closed during the carnival.
- h) There is a kite competition for children.

2. Match the words given in bold in the text with their definitions.

- a) a line of people moving along so that other people can watch them (n)
- b) the number of people living in an area or a country (n)
- c) to continue for a particular length of time (v)
- d) an occasion or party when you celebrate something (n)