

1. Write T (true) or F (false).

- a) You should use only one word while doing research. ☐
- b) If you type what you are looking for in inverted commas, you will see only exact matches. ☐
- c) Common words like 'a' or 'the' are always necessary while doing research. ☐
- d) A minus symbol helps you remove the results that you do not want. ☐
- e) The information we find on the Internet is always true. ☐

2. Complete the sentences according to the text.

- a) If you don't spell the words correctly, you can come across with .....
- b) Until you find the best result for you, you can try .....
- c) There are many ..... options that can help you filter your online searches.
- d) Not every website is ....., so you should double check before accepting the results.