

1. Complete each sentence with the correct ending, A-J, in the box.

- a. During his teens, Hawking built a computer for
- b. The doctors examined Stephen and said he was
- c. Hawking did not let ALS stop him from
- d. Stephen Hawking taught us many things about
- e. Hawking's books helped everyday people understand

- A. an inspiration
- B. in the early stages of ALS
- C. the solar system
- D. an important scientist
- E. complex concepts
- F. ignoring the difficulties
- G. achieving his goals
- H. problems with his physical health
- I. solving mathematical equations
- J. average scores of his classmates

2. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

- a. Stephen Hawking took advantage of his time and achieved his goals.
- b. Hawking and a few close friends created new games at university.
- c. Stephen was in the early stages of ALS before the age of 8.
- d. Hawking's story serves as an example for everyone.
- e. Hawking didn't have the skills expected from a Grade-A genius.