1. Answer the questions. Give short answers.

   a) What is the movie about?

   ...................................................................................................................... .

   b) When did the movie win the Oscar? Who directed the movie?

   ...................................................................................................................... .

   c) Why does the movie seem realistic?

   ...................................................................................................................... .

2. Write the definitions of the words in bold and italics in the text.

   a) audience: ...............................................................................................................

   b) huge: ......................................................................................................................

   c) humour: ..................................................................................................................