

1. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

- a) The word “volcano” comes from the Roman god of mountains. _____
- b) Tectonic plates are pieces of the Earth’s surface that fit together. _____
- c) A dormant volcano is unlikely to ever erupt again. _____
- d) When lava leaves the volcano it’s called magma. _____
- e) Muano Loa is the world’s largest active volcano. _____

2. Read the text again and answer the questions.

- a) What is a volcano?
_____
- b) What are tectonic plates?
_____
- c) How many types of volcanoes are there? What are they?
_____
- d) What is magma?
_____
- e) What is magma called when it leaves the volcano?
_____
- f) Where are the most volcanoes located?
_____