

1. Circle the correct choice(s).

1) According to the text, what are parents' three main approaches to homeschooling?

- | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------|
| a) Their values | b) Their lifestyles |
| c) Their personal styles | d) Their beliefs |

2) According to the text, "child-lead learning" is more

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| a) Difficult | b) Strict |
| c) Informal | d) Beneficial |

3) According to the text, if a child doesn't understand what is being taught, a parent can:

- | | |
|---------------------|------------------------------------|
| a) Skip that lesson | b) Discipline the child |
| c) Take a break | d) Continue working with the child |

4) According to the text, homeschooling is ideally suited for:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------|
| a) Children with learning differences | b) Gifted children |
| c) Average children | d) Unique children |

2. Find words or expressions in the text which mean:

- a) The people you live with in your town or region (Noun/paragraph 1)
- b) The way or style you do something (Noun/paragraph 2)
- c) A broad range or series of varied but related ideas (Noun/paragraph 2)
- d) When information is absorbed and understood (Verb/paragraph 3)
- e) A singular person; different from everybody else (Noun/paragraph 3)