

1. Choose the correct contextual meaning for the highlighted words found in the reading text.

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| a) Distinguish | 1. basic |
| b) Treatise | 2. to make fun of/make a joke about something or someone (to mock) |
| c) Rudimentary | 3. prediction |
| d) Satirical | 4. uncontrolled |
| e) Rampant | 5. thesis/commentary |
| f) Extrapolation | 6. to show the difference between two things |

2. Write T (True) or F (False) next to each statement.

- a) Early literary utopias portrayed societies where both good and bad existed.
- b) Philosophical treatises on utopia didn't contain a plot.
- c) Arcadian society was supposed to exist before the development of civilization.
- d) Scientific romance came after science fiction and speculative fiction.
- e) Anti-utopian or dystopian literature was seen as a reflection of society.
- f) Sci-fi novels don't generally contain elements of utopian or dystopian ideas.