

1. Read the text. Which place in the article is the most interesting to visit, do you think? Why?

2. Read the text again and match sentences with Galleries Lafayette (GL), the Ginza (TG) and GUM (G).

- a) It is on the site of a much older building.
- b) It began as a small shop selling fashionable clothes.
- c) It's an expensive place to buy a cup of coffee.
- d) It used to have a floor where only politicians could buy clothes.
- e) A staircase was added about 100 years ago.
- f) It used to be the biggest shopping centre in Europe.
- g) The most famous department store in this location was established by an important businessman.
- h) People used to queue for a long time to get inside.
- i) Many people go there just to see the building.
- j) It's a very good place to buy watches.