

1. Answer the questions.

a) Define the internet in your own words?

.....

b) What are some common uses of the internet?

.....

c) What should you be careful of when you are doing research?

.....

d) What should you avoid when you are emailing a stranger?

.....

2. Complete the sentences with the underlined words or expressions from the text.

a) If something goes wrong, just use your to find a solution.

b) In the past 20 years, there has been a improvement on student performance.

c) Many teenagers their parents financially until they graduate from college and find a job.

d) Children get more attention in smaller classes.

e) Don't fake excuses for not doing your homework. Just tell the truth.

f) Many people do not see politicians as