

1. Write the highlighted words in the reading next to their correct contextual definition.

- a) Practices or acts repeated in the same habitual way:
- b) The offering of one's life (or a disadvantageous self act):
- c) To remember past experiences:
- d) A formal public gathering often with a habitual schedule of events/activities:
- e) Another word for soldiers:
- f) A circular (round) shaped flower arrangement/bouquet:
- g) The remembrance and celebration of an important past event:
- h) The spoken performance of a poem or piece of literature from memory:
- i) A word for important public officials (politicians/royalty/VIPs):
- j) Another word for a speech:
- k) A religious song:
- l) A list of military personnel who died in a war:

2. Write T (True) or F (False) next to each statement.

- a) In 1915, 25th April was officially named Anzac Day.
- b) Originally, the word Anzac meant someone who fought at Gallipoli.
- c) An unusual Anzac Day dawn ceremony firstly includes an introductory speech.
- d) Flowers are placed beside the names of those soldiers who died.
- e) After the ceremony, people often have a coffee and a biscuit, and talk about the future.....
- f) A separate dawn service is held at Anzac Cove on Anzac day.