

1. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)? If the statement is false, write the correct statement.

- a. Teenagers have different perspectives of their summer holidays.
- b. A good swimmer under fifteen can be a life guard.
- c. To be a lifeguard you only need a thirty-hour course.
- d. A part-time job in food services enables you to be more self-confident and responsible.
- e. There are different reasons to hire someone to take care of our animals.
- f. Babysitters can get some specific training to deal with problematic situations.

2. Answer the questions. Write short answers.

- a. How should the summer jobs be?
- b. What skills does being a lifeguard develop?
- c. Which qualities or skills are important to get a part-time job in food services?
- d. Who does usually need a babysitter?
- e. What does 'their' refer to in the paragraph about dog-walking?