

1. Which advice is in line with the rules of netiquette mentioned above? Tick (✓) five correct answers.

1. You should avoid using all capital letters on online venues. _____
2. To add humour to your messages, you ought to use smileys. _____
3. Do not post copyrighted material to which you do not own the rights. _____
4. You should not send spam, aka junk mail. _____
5. You ought to forward personal email without the original author's permission. _____
6. It's better to give a descriptive phrase in the subject line of the message. _____
7. You'd better use common abbreviations to shorten messages. _____
8. Internet newbies should learn netiquette rather than social interactions in real life. _____
9. You should avoid coarse, rough or rude language. _____
10. It is good to acknowledge and return messages promptly. _____

2. There are five underlined words in the text. Match them with their definitions.

1. to annoy someone _____
2. the information or other material contained on a website or other digital media _____
3. a person who is new and has little experience in doing something, especially in using computers _____
4. mentioning somebody who worked on a project such as a film or a television programme _____
5. to copy someone else's work or ideas _____