

1. Read the text. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

1. People have finally learnt how to predict the future correctly. _____
2. Darryl Zanuck said people would not watch TV every night. _____
3. According to the CEO of Microsoft, iPhone would get significant market share. _____
4. The president of the Michigan Savings Bank encouraged Horace Rackham to invest in Ford. _____
5. Steve Chen initially questioned YouTube's long-term strategy. _____

2. Complete the each sentence with the information in the text.

1. Darryl Zanuck thought TV wouldn't last because people would soon get _____ of staring at a box.
2. Thomas Edison thought nobody would use _____.
3. According to the CEO of BlackBerry, there would be no reason to have a _____ anymore.
4. Ballmer said the iPhone would not get any significant _____.
5. Marty Cooper predicted that local wire systems wouldn't be replaced by _____.