

1. Do you know who these people are? Match.

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| a) Albert Einstein | 1. ____ An American former professional boxer who competed from 1985 to 2005 |
| b) Marilyn Monroe | 2. ____ An American writer and humourist who lived between 1835 and 1910 |
| c) Madonna | 3. ____ An American singer and actor who lived between 1935 and 1977 |
| d) Clint Eastwood | 4. ____ An American actress and model who lived between 1926 and 1962 |
| e) Elvis Presley | 5. ____ An American actor, filmmaker, musician, and political figure |
| f) Mark Twain | 6. ____ A politician and statesman who was the Prime Minister of the UK from 1940 to 1945 |
| g) Agatha Christie | |
| h) Mike Tyson | 7. ____ An American singer, songwriter, actress, and businesswoman |
| i) Winston Churchill | 8. ____ A German-born theoretical physicist who lived between 1879 and 1955 |
| | 9. ____ An English crime novelist, short story writer and playwright. She is best known for her 66 detective novels |

2. Write T (true) or F (false).

- a) ____ The owner of the hotel has a collection of the items that celebrities have used in their real lives.
- b) ____ The guests can choose to stay in the room of any celebrity they want.
- c) ____ The rooms are named only after stars of Hollywood or music.
- d) ____ Einstein never wore socks in his life because he couldn't afford to buy a pair.
- e) ____ Strawberry ice-cream was one of Elvis Presley's favourite foods.
- f) ____ There are two Fame Hotels; one in New York, one in Los Angeles.

3. Complete the sentences according to the passage.

- a) You can practice boxing in _____'s room, because _____.
- b) Einstein _____ for breakfast.
- c) Marilyn Monroe would probably have liked _____.
- d) The writer of this article wants to _____.