

1. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

- a) In three years, there will be more than four million robots using TV remote controllers.
- b) In the future, robots will be more common than blenders.
- c) Scientists do experiments on robots which can even play with kids.
- d) People can share their houses with a robot now.
- e) Some big companies are also spending money on these robots.

2. In the reading, look at the words in bold type. Circle the correct choices.

1) The word 'domestic' means

- a) relating to the outside b) relating to the home and family relationships

2) The word 'their' refers to

- a) Robots b) humans c) vacuum cleaners d) blenders

3) The word 'them' refers to

- a) people b) robots c) tasks d) children

4) The word 'investing' means

- a) giving money to a business because you hope to get profit b) spending time

3. Answer the questions.

a) What jobs do you think may be replaced by robots in the future?

.....

b) Do you think a robot could be used in education? Why / Why not?

.....