

1. Match the sentences with the animals.

- a) Not only are they intelligent, but they are also strong. ....
- b) They are more intelligent than dogs although people believe the opposite. ....
- c) They can find a way to get out of anywhere so easily that people cannot keep them in their aquariums. ....
- d) They can guess the upcoming dangers and avoid them. ....
- e) Their emotions are similar to people's emotions. ....

2. Answer the questions.

- a) How do people benefit from elephants' intelligence and power?

.....

- b) How is a chimpanzee group described in the text?

.....

- c) What are some 'human' things that pigs do?

.....

- d) Are crows more intelligent than gorillas?

.....