

1 Read the descriptions and write what type of material is used.

- a) It's very cheap and is a very good insulating material. _____
- b) This material is not strong enough to keep the wind or rain out. _____
- c) Both the house and the furniture are made by using the same material. _____
- d) It takes a lot of energy and time to destroy this type of material. _____

2 Answer the questions.

- a) How can you keep warm on a bed made of ice?

- b) How can you bring light into a metal house if there's no electricity?

- c) What message did Elis Stensmen want to give by using waste newspapers?

- d) If you could make a house for your family, which material would you choose? Explain why.
