

1. Match the headings (A-C) with the sections (1-3) in the text.

A- Shop around for an item before you purchase

B- Only buy the amount you need

C- Don't spend more just to get something free

2. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

a) A large number of people in Britain are spending money on items and products they don't actually need. ☐

b) The article suggests a good way to save money is to spend more to get items for free. ☐

c) Searching online can help you decide if a product is worth buying or not. ☐

d) Buying the cheapest item is the best way of saving money. ☐

e) The article suggests not all offers help you save money. ☐