

2. Read Sharon's blog post about her town. Write the correct underlined word from the text next to each definition below.

- a) products like milk, yogurt, cheese, etc.: FOOD c) clean, tidy: NEAT
- b) number of people living in a city, country: POPULATION

3. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)? If the statement is false, write the correct statement, or explain why it is false.

- a) Hilltown is in the centre of England. FALSE. Hilltown is in the north of England.
- b) Less than 9,000 people live in Hilltown. FALSE. More than 9,000 people live in Hilltown.
- c) You can both post a letter and buy flowers in the same street. TRUE.
- d) You need to go to Mill Street if you want to buy medicine. FALSE. You need to go to High Street if you want to buy medicine.
- e) Sharon has to go to the big market although she doesn't like it. TRUE.
- f) There are some places for children in Hilltown. TRUE.
- g) There is an elementary school next to the sports centre. FALSE. There is a primary school next to the sports centre.
- h) You can go to see a beautiful theatre play in Hilltown. FALSE. You can go to see a beautiful theatre play in the city.