

2. Match the words to their definitions.

- | | | |
|--------------|----------|--|
| a) unusual | 1) | things that people produce and sell |
| b) enormous | 2) | a person who designs buildings |
| c) goods | 3) | very big, huge |
| d) warehouse | 4) | different from what is normal |
| e) architect | 5) | a large building for keeping things before |

3. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

- a) People built railways before they built canals.
- b) People kept machines and furniture in warehouses.
- c) There were French restaurants and cafés there in the 19th century.
- d) People live in old warehouses because they are poor.
- e) Architects can turn old buildings into modern houses.

4. Complete the following sentences meaningfully.

- a) Expensive cars and cafes show that
- b) Old warehouses than modern houses.
- c) Some people with a computer and a modem
- d) You can turn old warehouses,, and into houses.

5. Answer the questions. Give short answers.

- a) What are some unusual houses?

.....

- b) Which cities are old industrial cities of England?

.....

- c) How did people use rivers and canals in the past?

.....

- d) What are some industrial goods?

.....

- e) Why do some people prefer to live in these old buildings?

.....