

2) Fill in the blanks with the underlined words from the passage.

- a) The poison in the frog's skin is so ..... that it can paralyze a bird or a monkey immediately.
- b) Squid is a/an ..... in this part of Italy. Only very expensive restaurants serve it.
- c) Paediatricians warned parents that some foods may cause children to .....
- d) This meat is so tough, I cannot even ..... it!
- e) If the sauce is ....., add some spice and vinegar to it.
- f) ..... are the long thin parts of a sea creature such as an octopus.
- g) Each ..... receives two genes, one from each parent.
- h) I prefer cabbage ....., but my children like it cooked.

3) Write T (true) or F (false).

- a) Many people throw heart, lungs and liver of the sheep away. ....
- b) People in Thailand eat tarantula as a delicacy. ....
- c) Sushi and Fugu are served raw. ....
- d) Eating Fugu and Sannakji can be lethal. ....
- e) Sannakji chefs must attend training courses for two to three years. ....
- f) Frog Legs are not as expensive as other delicacies. ....

4) Answer the questions according to the text.

- a) What does “One person’s nightmare is another person’s delicacy.” (Paragraph 1) mean? Explain.
.....
- b) Which food is not as popular as it was in the past?
.....
- c) Why do people eat brain sandwiches with plenty of sauce?
.....
- d) What do insects contain that is good for the human body?
.....
- e) What are some insects that are on sale in the streets of Thailand?
.....
- f) Why do people eat Fugu although it doesn’t taste that good?
.....
- g) What do Frog Legs feel and taste like?
.....
- h) How do people usually prefer to eat Frog Legs?