

2. Fill in the gaps with the underlined words from the passage.

charge contemporary contribution countless demand host recipient swamp zones

- a) The guest thanked the for her hospitality.
- b) Tourism makes a major to the local economy.
- c) San Francisco and Tokyo are both located in earthquake
- d) There was little for tickets, so the performance was cancelled.
- e) Although the play was written hundreds of years ago, it still has a feel to it.
- f) The heavy rain had turned the small front yard of the cottage into a
- g) Of course, I know this song. I've heard it times on the radio.
- h) He was a of the Civilian Service Award.
- i) They you $20 to get in the museum.

3. Complete the sentences according to the passage.

- a) Glastonbury Festival by Michael Eavis in
- b) It took for all the tickets to be sold in 2011.
- c) The major art form performed in the festival is
- d) The performance arts you can see in the festival are, and
- e) In each zone,
- f) Although the festival is usually held in a muddy field,
- g) The most muddy festival was
- h) They created a 'superfence' in order to

4. Answer the questions according to the passage.

- a) What does the first organiser of the festival do now?
.....
- b) How much was a ticket when the festival first started?
.....
- c) What did a ticket include when the festival first started?
.....
- d) How many people attended the festival when it first started?
.....
- e) How much was a ticket in 2011?
.....
- f) About how many people attended the festival in 2011?
.....

