

1. Are the statements True or False?

- a) It is not known where this story comes from.
- b) Adolf Schullerus is the person who wrote the story himself in 1927.
- c) In hell, people are hungry because there is not enough food for everyone.
- d) In heaven, people can enjoy the food by feeding each other.
- e) The moral lesson of the story is that if we stop being selfish and also pay attention to people in need, we will live as if we were in heaven.

2. In your own words, write the differences between hell and heaven in the story. How can we make our world a nice place to live? Use the ideas from the story and your own ideas.

.....

.....

.....

.....