

1. Circle the correct choice.

1) A number of modern fathers

- a) are afraid of not being able to raise a child.
- b) are prepared to sacrifice careers for their family.
- c) think fatherhood provides discipline in their lives.

2) Men today

- a) do not want to attend the birth of their children.
- b) take no active part in prenatal care.
- c) wish they could afford to have more time off work when a child is born.

3) If a child were ill, most of the men questioned said

- a) either partner could stay with the child.
- b) the mother of the child should take time off work.
- c) they would stay off work themselves.

4) Dr Johnson

- a) has no reservations about the survey results.
- b) says parental behaviour patterns have changed for financial reasons.
- c) thinks both parents should be equally involved in the first weeks of the child's life.

2. Answer the question.

How are fathers involved in raising children in your culture? Give specific examples.