

1. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

- a) Ninety years ago, the average home usually measured 1,647 square feet, and had four bedrooms.
 - b) Property values are not very high in London.
 - c) Experts say new homes cause poor health.
 - d) A one-bedroom flat today is on average the same size as a Tube carriage.
 - e) Britain has the smallest houses in the world.
-

2. Answer the questions.

- a) Are there any new buildings in your neighborhood? How are they different from the older buildings?

.....

- b) Do you think that there are similarities between the new houses in Britain and in your country?

.....