

1. Complete the text with the following sentences. There is ONE EXTRA sentence.

- e.g. a) What about drinking white lemonade?
- b) So, their preferences shift from childhood to adulthood.
- c) For some people, buying a green car is unthinkable.
- d) People usually associate pink with softness, and happiness.
- e) Similarly, negative experiences can lead people to dislike a color.

2. Which of the following sentences can you conclude according to the text? Circle TWO.

- a) People usually choose the products they buy according to their prices.
- b) The reason for liking one color and disliking another is people's experiences.
- c) People change their color preferences regularly as they get bored quickly.
- d) Children have different emotional connections to color than adults.