

- 1. Read the article above and write T (true) or F (false) next to the statements.
- a) Research says that what people feel as love for their dogs is not the same as real feeling of love.
 - b) Dog's eye contact with humans creates as much of a bond as the eye contact of a baby with his or her mother
.....
 - c) In ancient civilizations, eye contact was the only way to create connections between people.
 - d) According to Kikusui, humans might not feed the dogs who do not make eye contact with them.

- 2. Read the article and write T (true) or F (false) next to the sentences.
- a) What proves that dogs and humans show love for each other?
.....
 - b) What things can increase oxytocin levels according to the text?
.....
 - c) How are relationships between humans similar to relationships between people and dogs?
.....