

1. Read the definitions and write the correct word from the text.

- a) an instruction to do something, given by someone in authority
- b) to succeed in doing something difficult, especially after trying very hard
- c) to think about something carefully, especially before making a choice or decision
- d) to try extremely hard to achieve something, even though it is very difficult
- e) a subject that people study or an area of activity that they are involved in as part of their work

2. Write the letter of the correct choice in the gaps in the text.

- a) Think about what you want to do very carefully.
- b) Some people just start a new career as soon as they find a job.
- c) Maybe they are bored of doing the same thing.
- d) Sometimes they make mistakes because they don't know the job.
- e) You should think about these before you take action.

