

1. Read the text, and find what the numbers refer to.

a) 60%

- ☐ the number of activities in American camps
- ☐ the percentage of British kids going to camps
- ☐ the percentage of British kids getting bored

b) 2003

- ☐ the year the article was published
- ☐ the year the British government began the Do It 4 Real programme
- ☐ the number of British kids going to summer camps each year

c) 21,000

- ☐ the number of places of summer camps
- ☐ the number of American kids going to summer camps each year
- ☐ the financial participation of the families

d) £11.5 million

- ☐ the amount of money won at the lottery by one family
- ☐ the total of lottery money invested by the British government in summer camps
- ☐ the sum invested by the American government in summer camps

2. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

a) 1 million American children go to summer camps. ☐

b) Fifty percent of British teenagers have no activity during the summer. ☐

c) Do It 4 Real is a new reality TV programme. ☐

d) The European Union is investing £11.5 million of lottery money in summer camps. ☐

e) British families pay from £25 to £100 for the camps. ☐