

2. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)? If the statement is false, write the correct statement.

- a) Today, there are jobs which didn't exist in the past.
- b) There is an increase in population because people live longer.
- c) In the future, the number of healthcare workers will stay the same.
- d) The robot technology hasn't been used yet.
- e) There will be need for people who can develop smart houses for the elderly.
- f) There will be no need for Internet security consultants in the future.
- g) Governments and organizations have sufficient protection against hackers.
- h) Because of global warming, the need for renewable sources of energy workers will increase.
- i) In order not to waste natural resources anymore, we need to change our lifestyles.
- j) The number of water supplies at present is enough.

3. If you were to choose one of the fields and jobs in the future, which one would you choose? Write your answer in short and give at least one reason.

.....

.....

.....