

2. Read the definitions below and find which word matches the definition.

- a) (n): prizes or other marks of recognition given in honour of an achievement (paragraph 1)
- b) (n): a situation in which someone is trying to win something or be more successful than someone else (paragraph 3)
- c) (v): Exhibit, display (paragraph 3)
- d) (adj): Exciting or admired by many people, usually relating to rich and famous people (paragraph 4)
- e) (n): People who are famous, especially in the entertainment business (paragraph 4)

3. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)? If the statement is false, write the correct statement.

- a) The first Cannes Film Festival was held 69 years ago.
- b) The president of the festival is the person who decides which film will win the award.
- c) Only the films which cost huge amounts of money to produce can compete in the festival.
- d) As the festival takes place in France, only French movie stars and directors attend it.

4. Watch the video for this unit. You will find some details of 2016 Cannes Film Festival. Answer the questions according to the video.

- a) Which film was first shown in 2016 Cannes Film Festival? What is it about?

.....

- b) How many films / directors competed for Palme D'or (Golden Palm)? Can you name some of them?

.....

- c) Why was the security on high alert?