

1. Read the text. Write picture 1 or picture 2 next to the ideas below.

- a. The people in this photo are pleased to be there.
- b. The people in this photo may be running away from something terrible.
- c. The people in this photo can go home whenever they want.
- d. The people in this photo are enjoying themselves.
- e. The people in this photo would rather be somewhere else.

2. Write true (T) or false (F).

- a. The photos contain very different elements.
- b. The messages that the photos portray are very different.
- c. The people in picture 2 are probably not pleased to be there.
- d. The people in picture 2 are probably escaping from war.
- e. The people in picture 1 have probably decided to go camping to have a nice weekend away.