

1. Read the statements below and write T (true), F (false) or DS (Doesn't say).

- a) You have to know someone for a long time to call him/her a friend.
- b) Friends are more important than family.
- c) New friends will bring you joy.
- d) When you make new friends, your old friends will be jealous.
- e) It's important to show respect to your friends.
- f) You can make new friends in clubs and during volunteer work.
- g) If your friends move away, it is difficult to keep in touch.

2. Each statement is similar to sentences in the reading text. Circle the correct word after re-reading the text.

- a) The word friend has the same / a different meaning for different people.
- b) To choose a friend is important because they influence us / have fun with us.
- c) It's always / not always so easy to feel comfortable with new friends.
- d) A club / Technology helps you keep in touch with your friends.
- e) When you argue with your friend, you should send a message / be patient and flexible.

3. Answer the questions. Use your own ideas.

- a) In your opinion, what is the most important thing in a friendship? Explain.
.....
- b) What do you do when you argue with your friend? How do you solve the problem?
.....