

- A There are so many wonderful cities to experience-it's hard to choose. First, look for special offers on a low-cost airline. Then, you should check what holiday apartments there are to rent-they can be convenient. That way, you feel part of the local area, too.
- B You should check out websites that offer work experience around the world in people's homes, farms and businesses. It's an amazing way to get to know a culture because you work, eat and socialize with local people. Maybe it will change your life forever!
- C Learning a new skill adds another dimension to your holiday. There are so many options. It's easy to find the right course. Cooking in Italy, photography in Morocco, salsa dancing in Cuba, yoga in Thailand... Take your pick!
- D Why don't you go on a hiking holiday in the Alps? There are fantastic half-board deals in the summer. For a real challenge, perhaps you could the Haute Route starting from Mont Blanc, but you have to be an experienced hiker.
- E You shouldn't camp! Why don't you hire an "Oh so cool" retro camper van instead? It's the surfer's favourite to take to the beach. That way you're independent and can drive from place to place. You sleep in the van, so you don't need to worry about the rain.
