

2. Fill in the blanks in the text with the sentences below. There are two extras.

- a. However, many of them have clearly been moving.
- b. In fact, Christopher Columbus recorded its existence for the first time.
- c. Therefore, the Bermuda Triangle is also known as the Devil's Triangle.
- d. Others believe they could be ancient Inca roads or irrigation systems.
- e. The Nazca lines are cool, but aren't evidence of aliens.

3. Circle the correct answer (a, b, c) for each question.

- a. The Nazca people created supernatural explanations / massive drawings on the ground / the rocks across the playa.
- b. The Bermuda Triangle has many paranormal activities / ancient patterns / landing strips for UFOs.
- c. Sailing stones move on the lost continent of Atlantis / giant drawings / a dry lake bed.