

2. Read the text and report what Banksy said in the interview. Write the correct forms of verbs and pronouns in line with the rules of reported speech.

- a) He maintained that there a new audience and that it easier to sell one's art.
- b) He said that to art college.
- c) He claimed it necessary to drag around a portfolio any more.
- d) He told us to send works to snooty galleries.
- e) He reminded that all need a few ideas.
- f) He added this the first time the bourgeois world of art to the people.
- g) He advised that we it count.

3. Read the statements and write T (true) or F (false).

- a) Street art is a lot deeper than graffiti.
- b) Of all the street artists in the world, Banksy is the most famous.
- c) Nobody knows the real identity of Banksy.
- d) Banksy only creates humorous images on walls.
- e) He drew a protester with a rock in his hand to give a message.
- f) Banksy displays his works of art in the streets.
- g) He says there is not a direct connection between an artist and people.
- h) He has been using the streets of England for his art for almost three decades.