

- 1) What is the writer trying to do?
- A make suggestions about how a band could improve .
 - B offer his opinion on a band's new CD.
 - C give information about the members of a band.
 - D explain why a CD has been so successful.
- 2) What does the writer say about the two songs at the beginning of the CD?
- A They are unlike the songs the band normally performs.
 - B They are similar to the other songs on the CD.
 - C They may not be enjoyed as much as the other songs on the CD.
 - D They are too loud and heavy.
- 3) What does the writer tell us about Rob Letchford?
- A He was not at his best when he recorded the CD.
 - B He is unable to do any more performances.
 - C He has become unwell since making the CD.
 - D He will not appear at some performances with the band.
- 4) What conclusion does the writer come to about the CD?
- A He enjoyed the slow songs in particular.
 - B He prefers some of their earlier CDs.
 - C He thinks some of the songs may become annoying.
 - D He feels the songs at the end are less good.
- 5) Which of the following did a fan say about the CD?
- A This CD is better than the last one because it's got some dance tunes on it as well as some lovely slow tunes.
 - B I saw the band perform this CD recently at a concert, so I went and bought it immediately.
 - C The members of this band haven't changed since they started and this CD shows how they have learnt to produce an amazing sound together.
 - D I'm so pleased the band has made a CD with all their best hits. I love their music, so I know all these songs and can sing along to them.

