

1. Decide whether the following statements are true or false. Correct the false statements.

- a) Britain is starting to get a reputation for bad cuisine. T F
- b) The most popular TV chefs in Britain are younger and more charismatic than they used to be. T F
- c) 'Jamie's Kitchen' is a TV programme about ordinary people who set up their own restaurants. T F
- d) Jamie's restaurant 'Fifteen' will be opening in several months' time. T F
- e) The traditional British diet may be dying out. T F

2. Answer the question.

Have there been many changes in your country's cuisine? Are there any 'new' foods?

.....

3. What do the underlined words refer to?

- a) whose : b) his : c) those :