

1. Read the text and answer the questions.

a) Did he enjoy his holiday last summer? Support your answer with examples in the text.

.....

b) According to the text, what does a person usually do on an adventure holiday? Give at least three examples.

.....

c) Why does Ling want a different type of holiday this year?

.....

d) Which one do you think he will choose - a lazy holiday or an adventurous one? Why do you think so?

.....

e) Which one would you choose - an adventure holiday or a lazy one? Why / why not?

.....

2. Match the definitions to the bold words in the text.

a) an exciting and sometimes dangerous experience:

b) the activity of walking long distances on foot for pleasure:

c) an area of land with little water and vegetation:

3. What do the underlined words refer to?

a) We :

b) her :

c) She :