

1. Match the underlined words with their definitions.

- a) Expensive things that you do not need, but you buy for pleasure:
- b) Small mechanical devices:
- c) To continue for a particular length of time:
- d) Too heavy and fat:

2. Write T (true) or F (false) next to each statement.

- a) Clever gadgets help people to do everyday activities in a shorter period of time.
- b) Thanks to technology, everyday jobs like doing the laundry take only a day now.
- c) In the past, people didn't have cars because they were very poor.
- d) Children today use their imagination more than the children in the past.
- e) Many people think that shopping online leads to the closing of shops in towns and cities.

3. Answer the questions briefly.

- a) How many mobile phones are in use in the United Kingdom today?
.....
- b) Why are so many children obese or overweight in the UK according to some people?
.....
- c) Why don't people write letters now?
.....
- d) What should we do to be responsible technology users?
.....