

1. Answer the questions.

- a) Who got paid in blocks of salt?
- b) Where did people use cocoa beans for currency?
- c) What was a Japanese rice payment called?
- d) What did Italians use for money?

2. Write T (True) or F (False).

- a) The word 'salary' comes from the Greek word for salt.
- b) In Central America, an egg used to cost one cocoa bean.
- c) Mongolians liked to use tea bricks as money.
- d) In Europe, landlords sometimes accepted pepper corn as rent money.