

1. Read the passage and answer the questions.

- a) When was the audition?
- b) Who are Francine and Barret?
- c) What was Francine upset about?
- d) How much would Barret make on a good day?
- e) How does the writer describe New York?

2. Read the passage again and correct the false statements below.

- a) He gave two dollars to each homeless person and then Francine began to cry.
.....
- b) He felt really sorry for Barret and took him to a restaurant where they ate a pizza.
.....
- c) Barret reads books about history and physics, but he doesn't know much about philosophy.
.....
- d) He stood there with Barret because he wanted to see people walking by the homeless.
.....