

1. Read the text and decide if the following statements are true (T) or false (F). Correct the false statements.

- a) A good detective needs to know a little about everything.
- b) Having a strong body is very important.
- c) Working in different jobs cannot help you to become a good detective.
- d) Attention to details is an important skill a detective must have.
- e) A good detective does not need an assistant.
- f) Criminals haven't improved their techniques in the past 20 years.
- g) Reading detective stories is the best way to learn modern crime-solving techniques.

2. Read the text again. Match the words and phrases from the text to their definitions.

- | | | |
|---------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| a) trade | <input type="checkbox"/> | 1) information that is used to prove something |
| b) objective | <input type="checkbox"/> | 2) an area of business and the people connected with it |
| c) keep one's eyes peeled | <input type="checkbox"/> | 3) something that you're trying to achieve; goal |
| d) evidence | <input type="checkbox"/> | 4) having the most recent information about something |
| e) sharp | <input type="checkbox"/> | 5) look carefully for something or somebody |
| f) draw conclusions | <input type="checkbox"/> | 6) quick to notice and understand things |
| g) updated | <input type="checkbox"/> | 7) have an idea about something after studying or thinking about it |