

1. Write a bold word from the text.

- a) The physical or mental energy that allows you to do something for a long time. _____
- b) Large in amount or size. _____
- c) Something that helps you or gives you an advantage. _____
- d) Drugs that are taken illegally by someone who plays a sport to make them better at that sport. _____
- e) Usual and like the most common type. _____

2. Choose the correct option.

After mice took the drug,

- a) they had a higher risk of heart attack.
- b) they couldn't get out of bed.
- c) their physical performance improved.
- d) they needed to take a drug test.

The drug could benefit adults because they don't

- a) have time to go to the pharmacy.
- b) have many options available.
- c) have time to exercise 40 minutes a day.
- d) have gyms near their homes.

Michael Phelps offered to go through extra drug testing before the 2008 Olympics because

- a) he wanted to prove his success was not suspicious.
- b) he wanted to change the results.
- b) he aimed to improve his stamina.
- d) he tried to hide the test results.