

1. Fill in the table with the examples of each way.

	Sustainable Materials	Recycled Materials	Energy Efficiency Alternative energy	Water Conservation
Example	Using timber

2. Choose the correct option.

To be able to build an eco-friendly home you need...

- a) eco-friendly and recycled materials
- b) alternative energy sources
- c) ways to save water
- d) all of them

Using sustainable materials to build houses may prevent

- a) saving energy
- b) deforestation

Recycled materials have the benefits of

- a) reducing waste and saving natural sources
- b) saving money and recycling rubbish

Using energy efficiently means:

- a) not using energy at all
- b) saving energy where possible

Water comes from tap

- a) is a long and difficult process
- b) is generally valued more than it needs to be