

1. Which is NOT true according to the passage?

- a) In some languages and cultures, certain feelings and behaviours are not defined.
- b) Language doesn't have much of an impact on our personality and behaviour.
- c) People with different languages perceive the world differently from one another.
- d) People develop a different personality by speaking a language other than their mother tongue.